

Online Pre-Sessional English Course

The Online Pre-Sessional Course (OPSE) is a 6, 12 or 16 week programme that provides students with an initial period of intensive English language training and assessments – adapted for online learning.

The courses will be delivered by qualified EFL Teachers from the Oxford International English Language division, from our schools in Brighton, Greenwich and Oxford, all of which are accredited for the teaching and learning of English.

Upon successful completion of the course, students will progress onto their designated International College.
