Insurance

Our schools require students to have adequate health, accident and travel insurance while attending a school. Our schools also require proof of that insurance either upon enrolment or upon arrival, and where proof is not available, students must immediately purchase at least one week insurance through Oxford International English. Uninsured students may not attend class until proof of insurance is available and will not be refunded for loss of lessons.

Visa Students

Students should contact their local Embassy, Consulate or High Commission to ensure they are allowed to enter and study in their chosen country. If a student does not possess or maintain a valid visa status in accordance with the conditions of their visa then their course will be terminated without refund. No visa support documentation will be provided until all fees have been received. Non-refundable courier charges will apply for visa documentation sent to students which will vary depending on the destination. Courier fees are not refundable if service was used.

In the case of refusal of visa all fees will be refunded except the enrolment fee and administration fee, provided a minimum of 14 days' notice has been provided along with proof of refusal from the consulate. Please note that there will also be a charge of one week's accommodation fees for any cancellation or postponement notified less than 14 days before the start of the course.

Disabled Students

Vancouver, Toronto, Halifax, and New York City are equipped for disabled access. Oxford International English is happy to give advice to disabled students and to assist them in choosing a programme that will meet their requirements. In order to assist, at the time of booking, we must be provided with full details in writing regarding any disability and any special requirements as a result of this.

Services

The company reserves the right to change details of its services, including courses, facilities, locations and course dates where circumstances beyond the company's control necessitate such changes, or where the number of enrolments is not enough to operate a course viably. External Classrooms - During busy periods, students may be taught off site. Further details will be available on the first day.

Public Holidays

Schools do not make up for lessons missed on Published Bank Holidays and there is no refund for lessons missed. This also applies to Professional Development days in Canada and the USA.

Student Holidays

Long-term students might be able to request annual leave/holiday dependent on their visa conditions. 30 days' written notice should be given, and the program date change fee will be applicable. Please check at the school for further conditions of application. Depending on the length and dates of the break in relation to the student's course, additional materials fees may be incurred.

Resolution of Disputes

In the event of a dispute between a student and the school, procedures are in place to facilitate the resolution of the dispute. Complaints should first be made to the School Principal or Centre Manager. Each complaint will be fully investigated provided that it is received within 30 days of the course ending and all fees have been paid. If the matter is not resolved, the student should complain in writing to the Oxford International Head Office. Schools in Canada are accredited by Languages Canada, PTIRU (Vancouver) and MTCU (Toronto). Attendance

Students must attend a minimum of 80% of their classes; otherwise, they may lose their place on the course, may not be eligible for a final certificate and may risk the termination of their visa status. No refunds will be given and where applicable the relevant authorities will be informed which could result in having to leave the country of study and jeopardise any future visa applications. It is the responsibility of students to inform the school of all illness and absences

All accommodation charges must be paid to Oxford International English directly and all prices are per person per week unless stated otherwise.
